These themes represent how you are uniquely talented. They are the starting point for living your strongest life possible.

Develop these CliftonStrengths to maximize your potential

Your greatest chance to succeed — at work or anywhere else — lies in strengthening what you naturally do best and doing more of it.

Start with your top five.

They are your most powerful natural talents.

1. Read everything about your top CliftonStrengths. To make the most of your talents, you first need to understand them and how to describe them to others.
2. Reflect on who you are. Think about your experiences, your motivations and how you see yourself. Then, consider how your CliftonStrengths shape you: what you do, how you do it and why.
3. Use these CliftonStrengths every day. Start with the suggestions in this report for applying your most powerful CliftonStrengths.
4. Watch out for blind spots. Sometimes how you exhibit your strongest CliftonStrengths can cause unintended negative misperceptions. Read the "What Is a Weakness?" section to learn more about preventing your strongest CliftonStrengths from getting in your way.

Then focus on your CliftonStrengths 6-10.

Apply the same strategies to make the most of your next five CliftonStrengths. You will excel and become the absolute best version of yourself when you take a strengths-based approach to your life. Do more of what you do best, and you'll feel more engaged, empowered and energized.

INFLUENCING

1. Communication

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You generally find it easy to put your thoughts into words. You are a good conversationalist and presenter.

WHY YOUR COMMUNICATION IS UNIQUE

These personalized Strengths Insights are specific to your CliftonStrengths results.

Because of your strengths, you like to amuse people with your stories. Your stories probably provide people with pleasant distractions from their daily routines, worries, and obligations.

By nature, you hope just about every person you encounter greets you warmly, thinks well of you, and chooses to spend more time with you. You truly enjoy the company of others. You trust they feel the same way.

Driven by your talents, you are naturally open and honest about who you are, what you have done, what you can do, and what you cannot do. Your straightforward explanations and stories help listeners see you as you see yourself. You reveal your strengths and limitations. You are forthright and plainspoken. People generally seek your company and want to work with you. Many are impelled to move into action by your words and examples.

It's very likely that you may be drawn to discussing issues and ideas with others. Perhaps you avoid or excuse yourself from situations where one person monopolizes the conversation.

Chances are good that you spontaneously regale people with funny anecdotes, timely jokes, witty comments, or whimsical ideas. Amusing others brings you pleasure. You have a gift for making people laugh out loud.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING COMMUNICATION

You are good at capturing people's attention by what you say and how you say it. Your ability to find words for your own and others' thoughts and feelings highlights important messages and helps you make meaningful connections.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Use your gift for stimulating conversation to connect with and inspire others.

- Monitor your audience. Carefully watch how they react to what you say and what engages them. Identify the words and phrases that caught their attention. Refine your upcoming presentations, conversations and speeches to focus on these highlights.
- Keep getting smarter about the words you use. They are a critical currency for you. Spend them wisely, and monitor their impact.
- Take your Communication talents to the level of strength by developing your knowledge and expertise in specific areas. You can be highly effective and influential when your message has substance.
- Keep your best stories top of mind, and practice telling them so you get better each time. You excel at capturing people's attention.
- Use your talents to build consensus among your peers. Get them talking, and help them put their ideas or feelings into words.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Because you are naturally verbal and instinctively share your thoughts, you may not realize when you are monopolizing a discussion. Try to be mindful of when other people have something to say, and consider pausing so they can say it.
- Remember that your words are not always enough to motivate others. Take time to listen and pay attention to what others are saying — and not saying.

STRATEGIC THINKING

2. Ideation

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You are fascinated by ideas. You are able to find connections between seemingly disparate phenomena.

WHY YOUR IDEATION IS UNIQUE

These personalized Strengths Insights are specific to your CliftonStrengths results.

Driven by your talents, you usually find novel and fresh ways to do things. People turn to you when they find themselves struggling to generate ideas.

It's very likely that you handle whatever tasks come your way in the course of the day. Mind-numbing routines, processes, paperwork, or production lines eventually bore you. On the other hand, you thrive in environments where you must deal with unexpected requests, unanticipated problems, or changing priorities. Being flexible by nature, you enjoy creating solutions as needs arise. Actually, you think better and accomplish more when your ability to respond to situations on a moment's notice is acknowledged, used, and appreciated.

Because of your strengths, you ask questions. You ponder answers. You find the underlying causes of a situation, problem, system, mechanism, plan, regulation, or prohibition. Logical and ordered in your thinking, you study every detail, however small. You are determined to examine the facts.

Instinctively, you are an original and innovative thinker. Others frequently rely on you to generate novel concepts, theories, plans, or solutions. You refuse to be stifled by traditions or trapped by routines. You probably bristle when someone says, "We can't change that. We've always done it this way."

Chances are good that you automatically think of new and different ways to do things. Your mind is brimming with ideas. You probably are eager to share them with whoever will listen.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING IDEATION

You are fascinated by ideas. Because you enjoy looking at the world from different perspectives and are always searching for connections, you are a powerful and creative brainstorming partner.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Refine your creativity to inspire and energize yourself and others.

- Make small changes in your work or home routines. Experiment. Play mental games with yourself. You likely get bored quickly, so these adjustments can keep you engaged.
- Take time to read, explore and think. Others' ideas and experiences can energize you and help you form new ideas.
- Understand the fuel for your Ideation talents. When do you get your best ideas? When you're talking with people? When you're reading? When you're simply listening or observing? Identify the circumstances when you get your best ideas so you can recreate them.
- Think through your ideas before you communicate them. Not everyone will be able to "connect the dots" of an interesting but incomplete idea and might dismiss it.
- Discuss your ideas with others. Because you have so many to share, you make brainstorming sessions exciting and productive. Their feedback will help you refine your thoughts.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Your limitless thoughts and ideas can sometimes overwhelm and confuse people. Consider refining your ideas and sharing only the best so others won't reject them simply because they cannot follow your abstract thinking.
- You might struggle to follow through on the ideas you generate. Think about collaborating with someone who can help you turn your best ideas into real results.

STRATEGIC THINKING

3. Strategic

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You create alternative ways to proceed. Faced with any given scenario, you can quickly spot the relevant patterns and issues.

WHY YOUR STRATEGIC IS UNIQUE

These personalized Strengths Insights are specific to your CliftonStrengths results.

It's very likely that you generate innovative ideas. You have a unique perspective on events, people and situations. You probably inspire others to start projects and launch initiatives as a result of your perspective. You tend to identify a goal, devise numerous ways of reaching it and choose the best alternative. This explains why you see opportunities, trends and solutions before your teammates, classmates or peers do.

Instinctively, you select the right combination of words to convey your ideas or feelings. In the middle of discussions, your vocabulary provides you with precise phrases and terminology. You probably express yourself with ease and grace.

Because of your strengths, you are innovative, inventive, original, and resourceful. Your mind allows you to venture beyond the commonplace, the familiar, or the obvious. You entertain ideas about the best ways to reach a goal, increase productivity, or solve a problem. First, you think of alternatives. Then you choose the best option.

By nature, you generate ideas quickly. You draw clever linkages between facts, events, people, problems, or solutions. You present others with numerous options at a pace some find dizzying. Your innovative thinking tends to foster ongoing dialogue between and among the group's participants.

Driven by your talents, you characteristically find the right words to express whatever you are thinking. You offer explanations, discuss ideas, give examples, or share stories. You effectively use the spoken word.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING STRATEGIC

You quickly weigh alternative paths and determine the best one. Your natural ability to anticipate, play out different scenarios and plan ahead makes you an agile decision-maker.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Always have at least three options in mind so you can adapt if circumstances change.

- Strengthen the groups you belong to by using your talent to discover the best path to success. Because you can do this quickly, it may look as if you are “winging it,” so explain yourself along the way to help others understand what you see.
- Schedule time each day to think about your goals and strategies. Time alone might be the best way for you to evaluate all your options and to find the right course of action for each goal.
- Trust your insights. Because you consider options so naturally and easily, you might not realize how you came up with a strategy. But because of your exceptional talents, it will likely be successful.
- Find a group that does important work, and contribute your strategic thinking. Your ideas and expert planning can make you a strong leader in any group.
- Be prepared to explain your thought process; sometimes people can misinterpret your Strategic talents as criticism of their ideas. Help them understand that, instead, you are considering what is already working well and what others have already done.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- When working with others, sometimes they may misinterpret your strong Strategic talents as criticism. Be mindful of what is already working well and what others have accomplished.
- Because you evaluate patterns and pathways so quickly, others might find it difficult to follow or understand your thought process. Be aware that sometimes, you might have to backtrack to explain how you got to where you are.

EXECUTING

4. Responsibility

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You take psychological ownership of what you say you will do. You are committed to stable values such as honesty and loyalty.

WHY YOUR RESPONSIBILITY IS UNIQUE

These personalized Strengths Insights are specific to your CliftonStrengths results.

By nature, you consistently work at assignments and chores to their conclusion. People have confidence that you will see whatever you do through to the very end.

Instinctively, you volunteer for additional duties. You really enjoy being given authority over projects, individuals, or groups. You expect to be held accountable for the results you produce as well as your words and deeds.

Because of your strengths, you might be happier as a solo performer. Certain people may value the painstaking approach you take when working on assignments or striving toward a goal.

It's very likely that you may reject the idea that telling a falsehood about something unimportant is acceptable. Perhaps you refuse to make an innocent social excuse to protect someone's feelings.

Chances are good that you draw on your reserve of personal accountability when pressed to complete tasks. Fulfilling your commitments spurs you to do whatever it takes to complete projects. You realize others depend on you. This explains why you seldom rest until your work is done.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING RESPONSIBILITY

You have a deep sense of dedication and feel ownership for your commitments. You are a person of your word, and others know they can rely on and trust you.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Take ownership for the things that matter most to you.

- Always check your schedule and to-do list before taking on a new request. This will help you realistically meet all of your commitments without overworking yourself and demonstrate to others that you are serious about your responsibilities.
- Align yourself with those who share your sense of commitment. You will thrive when you are surrounded by others who take their responsibilities as seriously as you do.
- Be an ethical watchdog for your school, organization or community by taking action to eliminate and prevent any unethical behavior you see.
- Let your teacher or manager know that your natural sense of responsibility gives you an exceptional capacity to function independently.
- Be selective. Because you are instinctively responsible, it might be difficult for you to refuse requests from others. Sometimes you need to remind yourself to say no.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Because you find it difficult to turn down others' requests, sometimes you overcommit. Try to manage your Responsibility talents by giving up something before you take on a new task.
- Too many obligations can keep you from spending time with the most important people in your life. Remember that sometimes, no is the best answer for the health of your relationships.

INFLUENCING

5. Activator

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You can make things happen by turning thoughts into action. You want to do things now, rather than simply talk about them.

WHY YOUR ACTIVATOR IS UNIQUE

These personalized Strengths Insights are specific to your CliftonStrengths results.

Driven by your talents, you occasionally tell yourself that you can make choices with ease. Perhaps your sense of urgency compels you to produce results more swiftly than less decisive individuals can.

Because of your strengths, you commonly influence people to produce results, sign up to work on projects, or rally around causes. When you take time to know them as individuals, many people are willing to move into action at your prompting. They are apt to realize you appreciate their special qualities, talents, interests, or experiences.

It's very likely that you purposely interject highly technical language into your conversations — language that may be understood by a limited number of people. Your vocabulary, in and of itself, tends to alert listeners that your ideas and opinions carry extra weight. Simply put: Your air of authority causes individuals to take quite seriously whatever you tell them.

Chances are good that you might make certain people feel valued by listening carefully to what they are saying. Later you may refer to one of their key thoughts or questions. Perhaps this simple act tells individuals that you take what they say seriously. When you can contribute to someone's sense of well-being, maybe your own life becomes a little more satisfying.

Instinctively, you now and then like to make your own choices. Once you have settled on a goal, maybe you are eager to reach it. By taking charge, you might notice that particular parts of your life become a bit more interesting or satisfying.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING ACTIVATOR

You are a catalyst. You naturally know how to turn ideas into action, and you make things happen. Your energy can be contagious and engaging.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Be the catalyst. When others are stuck, make a decision and get going.

- Record your insights or revelations when you have them so you can act on them later.
- Take responsibility for your intensity. Your drive to make things happen can be the push that people and groups need to move from discussion to action.
- Put yourself in situations where you can make things happen. Your energy and tempo will engage you and the people you work with.
- Take on the role of asking for action items in meetings. Be the one who forces the group to commit to next steps before the meeting is over.
- Find work that allows you to make your own decisions and act on them. In particular, look for startup or turnaround opportunities.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Sometimes you might charge ahead and act without a solid plan. Before making a major decision, think about challenging yourself to consider alternatives and weigh options first.
- The force of your urging people to take action might make them feel overwhelmed and pressured to act before they are comfortable. Remember that others may not feel that same urgency, and some people will need more time to think before they act.

STRATEGIC THINKING

6. Futuristic

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You are inspired by the future and what could be. You energize others with your visions of the future.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING FUTURISTIC

You are a visionary. Your powerful anticipation and detailed visualization of a better future can turn aspirations into reality. Your vision of tomorrow can inspire and push others to new heights.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Share your visions of a better future.

- Use as much detail as possible when you describe what you see on the horizon. Not everyone can naturally fill in the gaps between the present and future like you can.
- Choose roles that allow you to contribute your ideas about the future. For example, you might excel in entrepreneurial or startup situations.
- Help those who are struggling imagine their future. You naturally foresee a better tomorrow, and that motivates you to overlook today's pain and problems.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Because you live in the future, you may find it difficult to enjoy the present moment. While it will always be important for you to have things to look forward to, don't overlook opportunities to experience and appreciate where you are now.
- Some people may dismiss your visions because they can't see the future like you do. Accept that you must address real issues today to get to a better tomorrow.

INFLUENCING

7. Command

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You have presence. You can take control of a situation and make decisions.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING COMMAND

You are direct and firm in the face of resistance or challenges. Because you are comfortable taking charge and speaking up, you can remove bottlenecks and reassure others in times of crisis.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Be ready to take charge when others waver.

- Practice the words, tone and techniques that turn your ability to confront into persuasiveness.
- Take on worthwhile challenges, and bring others with you. Use your Command talents to lead others out of their comfort zone and into new territory where change is inevitable.
- Help your colleagues and friends make commitments. You can provide the spark that will inspire them to act.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- Your decisiveness and presence can be intimidating, whether you intend it to be or not. Keep that in mind, especially when you have to coach others, deliver feedback and set expectations.
- Because you speak with authority, you might be used to getting the final word. Consider asking others for their input before sharing yours so they have a chance to contribute.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

8. Individualization

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You are intrigued with the unique qualities of each person. You have a gift for figuring out how different people can work together productively.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING INDIVIDUALIZATION

You notice and appreciate each person's unique characteristics, and you don't treat everyone the same. Because you can see what makes each individual unique, you know how to bring out their best.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Appreciate the uniqueness in each person you meet.

- Become an expert at describing your own strengths and style. What is the best praise you ever received? What is your best method for building relationships? How do you learn best?
- Ask your coworkers and friends these same questions. Help them create a future based on their strengths and what they do best.
- See the talents in others, and encourage them to follow their dreams. Help individuals understand and maximize the power of their talents.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- You often know more about others than they know about you, and when people don't naturally show awareness of your likes, dislikes, motivations and needs, this may disappoint you. Recognize that you will need to share your preferences with people, and don't assume they will instinctively know.
- Your natural impulse is to put individual needs and goals ahead of what is best for the group. To prevent the appearance of favoritism and bias, acknowledge that sometimes you will need to adjust your style for the greater good.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

9. Adaptability

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You prefer to go with the flow. You tend to be a “now” person who takes things as they come and who discovers the future one day at a time.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING ADAPTABILITY

You are flexible and can quickly adjust to changing or unexpected circumstances that upset or intimidate others. Your calm response to chaos reassures others and helps you respond to what people need.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

React immediately, and be a positive force for change.

- Look for opportunities to respond to people and situations that need your attention. Your natural ability to adapt relieves pressure during stressful situations and calms coworkers and friends.
- Fine-tune how you respond to the unexpected. For example, if your job requires you to travel on short notice, learn how to pack and leave in 30 minutes. If your workload is unpredictable, practice the first three moves you will make when the pressure hits.
- Don't apologize for your spontaneity. Your willingness to seize the moment means that you won't miss out on valuable experiences and opportunities.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- You're so willing to live in the moment that you might constantly shift your priorities. Be aware that frequent changes can feel endless and often unnecessary to those who thrive on structure and stability.
- You may have a tendency to miss deadlines or run late for appointments. Make sure you keep track of the most important due dates and meetings.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

10. Connectedness

HOW YOU CAN THRIVE

You have faith in the links among all things. You believe there are few coincidences and that almost every event has meaning.

WHY YOU SUCCEED USING CONNECTEDNESS

You build bridges between people and groups. You help others find meaning by looking at the bigger picture of the world around them, and you give them a sense of comfort and stability in the face of uncertainty.

TAKE ACTION TO MAXIMIZE YOUR POTENTIAL

Help others see connections and purpose in everyday life.

- Use your sense of connection to build the foundation for strong relationships. When you meet new people, ask them questions to find common ground and shared interests that you can use as a starting point.
- Consider roles in which you listen to and counsel others. You could become an expert at helping people see connections and purpose in everyday occurrences.
- Help those around you cope with unpredictable and unexplainable events. Your perspective will bring them comfort.

WATCH OUT FOR BLIND SPOTS

- You may react more calmly and passively to others' bad news, frustrations or concerns than they would like. Be aware that people sometimes need to vent and will want you to validate their feelings more than they want a philosophical response.
- Some may perceive you as naïve or idealistic because turmoil and upheaval likely trouble you. Remember that not everyone shares your connected view of humanity or believes that every negative event ultimately affects everyone.

Your greatest opportunity to reach your full potential is developing and using your strongest CliftonStrengths. But it is also important to understand all 34 of your CliftonStrengths themes.

Your unique CliftonStrengths 34 profile

The themes toward the top of your CliftonStrengths 34 profile might show up regularly in your life, and the ones closer to the bottom might not show up at all.

To fully understand your talent DNA, consider how all your CliftonStrengths themes, separately or in combination, influence your work and personal life. In addition to concentrating on your top 10 themes:

- Navigate the middle. You might notice these CliftonStrengths themes in your behaviors from time to time. And you may need to rely on them in certain situations. Think of these themes as a support system you can use when you need to.
- Manage the bottom. Just as your top CliftonStrengths show you who you are, those at the bottom may tell you who you are not. They aren't necessarily weaknesses, but they are your least powerful themes. If you don't manage them properly, they could prevent you from maximizing your potential.
- Identify weaknesses. To determine if any themes are getting in your way, review the "What Is a Weakness?" section on the next page, and find out how to overcome potential obstacles to your success.

To learn more about your entire CliftonStrengths profile, see the "Your CliftonStrengths 34 Theme Sequence" section at the end of the report.

Focusing on your CliftonStrengths doesn't mean you can ignore your weaknesses.

Gallup defines a weakness as anything that gets in the way of your success.

While the CliftonStrengths assessment does not mathematically quantify weaknesses, you can use your profile to understand how any of your CliftonStrengths themes might prevent you from maximizing your potential.

Your strongest CliftonStrengths are your best opportunity for success. But in some situations and with some people, these same themes can hinder your effectiveness and become blind spots.

The themes at the bottom of your profile can also get in the way of your success. They aren't necessarily weaknesses, but they likely do not come naturally to you.

To identify potential weaknesses, ask yourself:

- Does this theme ever undermine my success?
- Have I ever received negative feedback related to this theme?
- Does my role require me to use this theme, but I feel drained when I do?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you may be discovering areas of weakness. Don't ignore your weaknesses. Instead, focus on your strengths, and work to manage the areas that get in your way.

How do I manage my weaknesses?

- Claim them: Know your weaknesses and how they get in your way
- Collaborate: Ask partners for support
- Apply a strength: Use a different theme to achieve a better outcome
- Just do it: Lean in and do your best

Identify Your Unique Contribution: The CliftonStrengths Domains

While your CliftonStrengths 34 profile helps you understand who you are, there is also power in knowing how you make things happen, influence others, build relationships and process information. The framework of the four CliftonStrengths domains — Executing, Influencing, Relationship Building and Strategic Thinking — is another way to think about your CliftonStrengths and how you contribute when you join, create or lead a team.

The best teams are made up of individuals who understand their own — and others' — unique contribution to the team. This awareness and appreciation empowers the team to be more cohesive, versatile, productive and engaged.

However, be careful not to let the four domains limit your thinking. If you don't have any top themes in a particular domain, don't worry. That doesn't mean you can't think strategically or build relationships, for example. Everyone accomplishes tasks, influences others, builds relationships and processes information. You just use your stronger themes in different domains to get to the same outcome.

The next page shows you how your unique CliftonStrengths profile sorts into the four domains. Knowing which domain you lead with can help you understand your most powerful contribution.

The CliftonStrengths Domains

EXECUTING

People with dominant Executing themes make things happen.

INFLUENCING

People with dominant Influencing themes take charge, speak up and make sure others are heard.

RELATIONSHIP BUILDING

People with dominant Relationship Building themes build strong relationships that hold a team together and make it greater than the sum of its parts.

STRATEGIC THINKING

People with dominant Strategic Thinking themes absorb and analyze information that informs better decisions.

You lead with Strategic Thinking CliftonStrengths themes.

You know how to help individuals absorb and analyze information that can inform better decisions.

This chart shows the relative distribution of your unique CliftonStrengths 34 results across the four domains. These categories are a good starting point for you to examine where you have the most potential to perform with excellence and how you can best contribute to a team.

See chart below for more detail about your CliftonStrengths by domain.

Your CliftonStrengths by Domain

Take Action

Discovering your CliftonStrengths is only the beginning. Achieving excellence depends on your ability to develop and apply your CliftonStrengths and maximize your potential.

Now, take the next steps:

- Share your CliftonStrengths with others. Conversations with those closest to you can accelerate your CliftonStrengths development.
- Find a Gallup-Certified Strengths Coach. A coach can help you learn to productively apply your CliftonStrengths regardless of the situation.
- Apply your strongest CliftonStrengths every day. Read the suggestions in your report, and use the following statements to guide you.
